None of us are born with a "security gene". Practice good security.